

STATEMENT OF ETHICS
OF
THE ASTROLOGICAL ASSOCIATION OF St. LOUIS

The Astrological Association of St. Louis keeps all members' birth data and other personal information strictly confidential.

Members agree to do likewise with respect to such personally identifying information both for their clients and for their astrological colleagues.

Members agree to abide by generally accepted standards of ethical behavior,

- treating both clients and colleagues with the respect due to them as individuals,
- being sure to obtain their permission for any release of personal data,
- not using membership in this organization to imply any degree of astrological proficiency or certification, and
- recognizing their position of authority and responsibility as students, practitioners, and representatives of this divine science.
